We are not an Eco Resort!

COMING FOR 2010 MEMBERSHIP

Contrary to popular beliefs not all Resorts are Eco Resorts. Due to the popularity of Resorts in remote areas and Resorts that features black water creeks persons often associate all Resort with having these features.

Aracari however can be termed as a Vacation Resort. Our location is central to the township of Vreed-en-Hood and is accessible from the West Bank Public Road.

We are one mile North of the famous Demerara Harbor Bridge.

And as for our waters it's crystal clear. We are proud to boast over having the only salt water pool in Guyana that host an incredible line of activities each and every Sunday.

At this Resort the possibilities are endless. Due to our easily accessible location it can be termed as the ideal place for weddings, birthday celebrations, staff outings, conferences, retreats, symposiums and more.

This Resort features 36 magnificently designed one bedroom apartments, 2 restaurants, 2 bars, a salt water pool, Gym, Internet café, conference and banquet Hall and also a line of complimentary services.

Poolside Entertainment is another feature that makes us stand out from the rest. On Thursdays it's Karaoke, Fridays Mischievous Fridays after work lime, Saturdays Bollywood nights, Sundays poolside Fun day while in the evening it oldies and karaoke with Jah-rusleum Sounds.

POOLSIDE FUN
